Office of Faculty Affairs and Professional Development

The Office of Faculty Affairs is pleased to invite nominations for five Dean's Office Faculty Awards for 2016. These awards recognize faculty members who provide outstanding teaching, research, mentoring of faculty, and support of women faculty members.

The Kamran S. Moghissi, M.D. Endowed Faculty Award for Excellence in Basic Science Teaching will be given to a faculty member who, through long and meritorious teaching of basic sciences, has left a mark of excellence and provided students with a critical understanding of the faculty member's discipline. The purpose of this award is to recognize faculty achievement, to encourage continued progress, and to provide assistance to faculty who demonstrate significant contributions to the teaching of Basic Science courses during the first two years in the School of Medicine.

The Faculty Award for Excellence in Clinical Teaching will be given to a faculty member who, through long and meritorious teaching of clinical or behavioral sciences, has left a mark of excellence and provided students with a critical understanding of the faculty member's discipline.

The Outstanding Research Achievement Award will be given to a faculty member in a Basic Science or a Clinical Department who has made significant and career-long contributions to the advancement of an area of biomedical, behavioral, clinical or medical research.

The Outstanding Faculty Mentor Award will be given to a faculty member who has served as an outstanding mentor to other faculty at Wayne State University School of Medicine and demonstrates a gift and passion for mentoring other faculty.

The Women in Medicine and Science (WIMS) Leadership Award will be given to an individual who has supported and/or brought recognition to women faculty members or activities for women faculty.

A detailed description of each award along with the nomination process may be found within the attached PDF files.

The deadline for nominations is Monday, April 18, 2016.

The materials are to be scanned and submitted electronically to FAEmail@med.wayne.edu, in a bookmarked PDF for each faculty member to the Office of Faculty Affairs. No hard copies will be accepted.

Awards will be presented at the School of Medicine Faculty Awards Ceremony to be held in October, 2016. Award recipients will receive a plaque and monetary award.
